

APPLY BY APRIL 24 @ 12 PM EST

Join the AllSides Media Literacy Platform Pilot Team

Empower Your Students. Shape the Future of News Literacy.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: APRIL 24TH, 2026 12:00PM EST

AllSides for Schools and Project Look Sharp are launching a national pilot to develop and test a new “Media Literacy Mode” on the AllSides platform— directly integrating critical thinking and media literacy into real-time news engagement.

Why Join?

- $540 stipend per educator (2 per school)
- Up to 18 hours over one school year
- Join a cohort of 10 schools nationwide
- Directly shape tools & curriculum for news literacy

What's Involved?

 SPRING 2026	 SUMMER 2026	 2026–27 School Year
Pilot schools announced & planning begins	Kickoff + Virtual PD (July 14, 1–4 pm EST)	Classroom implementation, feedback, & collaboration

What Will Students Do?

- Analyze news for bias, get the full picture, and think for themselves
- Respond to critical thinking prompts
- Identify missing perspectives & manipulation
- Reflect on their interpretations
- Engage in structured dialogue

Who Should Apply?

High school-based teams of one teacher + one librarian who are:

- Excited about media literacy, news bias, and critical thinking
- Able to pilot with students in the 2026–27 school year
- Supported by school leadership
- From diverse school contexts (public, private, urban, rural, etc.)

Help your students become savvy, critical news consumers. Join the pilot team!

Apply Now

Learn More

Questions? Email rachael@allsides.com